Want to enter your own holiday creation into the contest? See the other side of this flyer for contest details and register by November 24.

AN OLD-FASHIONED CHRISTMAS

Friday, December 7, 6-8:30pm

Victorian carolers stroll the grounds spreading holiday cheer. Guides provide informal tours of the 1909 Perry home decorated for the season. Children can make an old-fashioned Christmas tree ornament, and homemade style cookies and hot chocolate will be served. The small farm animal petting zoo is always a favorite. Bring your whole family to this popular celebration. Great for Scout troops too. There's something for everyone. Free!
