

THERETAILBULLETIN

Volume 15: August 2009

Carrollton #12 for America's 25 Best Places To Move...

Forbes online magazine recently featured an article on "America's 25 Best Places To Move."

Carrollton ranked #12 out of 25 cities that are attractive places for people or 'relos' to live. The article is about people who relocate frequently as a result of corporate moves. Click here to read the full article.

Sprouts Anchor at The Market at Hebron...

The Market at Hebron is a 40,000 square foot retail development planned to open in the Fall of 2010. Sprouts Farmers Market will be the anchor tenant. Located west of Hebron and Josey, The Market at Hebron will be adjacent to a 316 multi–unit residential development and within walking distance to Baylor Medical Center at Carrollton. For further information or leasing opportunities, please contact Jean Smith, UCR, 214-252-1127 or Karla Smith, UCR, 214-252-1189. To view flyer, click here (select Carrollton and click on The Market at Hebron link).

Shops at Old Denton receives extensive media coverage...

The August 2009 issue of D Magazine has a special feature on "The Best of Big D" which highlights the top 43 top places to eat, drink and play. The Shops at Old Denton is noted as the "Best New Foodie Hangout!" Click here to read article. Other media coverage include an article on Super H Mart in the July/August issue of Dallas Modern Luxury magazine as well as being featured in USA Today and the Dallas Morning News.

July/August 2009 issue of Dallas Modern Luxury magazine page 94

If you wish to subscribe to this bulletin, contact Elise Back, elise.back@cityofcarrollton.com or 972-466-5741.

Economic Development

